Commission File No.: 001-04721

Note from Joe Clayton, dated June 14, 2013

Fellow Employees,

I am heartened by the emotional and generous outpouring from our team members across the business who exercise care, compassion and understanding when dire situations arise. Whether it is holding fundraising barbecues or charity drives, installing DISH service in Red Cross shelters, outfitting the Federal Emergency Response Agency (FEMA) with DISH gear, or most recently, providing water and sport drinks to firefighters on the frontlines of the fires currently raging in the Colorado Springs area, we should all take pride, and I invite you to share your DISH charitable stories with me at jclayton@dish.com.

On another note, a question I have been hearing a lot is "Joe, how are the wireless deals going?"

There is not much that we can share at this time; the situation is constantly, and sometimes rapidly, evolving. Just this week, SoftBank modified its bid for Sprint. In the wake of that news, we are analyzing Softbank's revised bid as we are considering our strategic options. Also this week, the Clearwire Board of Directors unanimously recommended our tender offer to acquire Clearwire's stock at $4.40 per share. That was a welcome development, but there are still a lot of steps in that journey, as well.

Bottom line, we will remain busy in the coming months as we work to get into the wireless business. More to come!

With all that is going on, I am proud of our accomplishments and generosity. Please keep up the good work, stay focused, and stay tuned.

Be proud and prepare for new adventures!

-Joe C.
